

1914-1919 Roll of Honour in the Church of Scotland, Falkland – 34 casualties
Research copyright of Marietta Crichton Stuart

Corporal William Black, 2nd Bn., Black Watch

Private James Brewster, 8th Bn., Black Watch

Private William Burgon, 19th (2nd Public Schools) Bn., Royal Fusiliers, City of London Regiment. Also on the United Free Church memorial plaque now in the Church of Scotland, Falkland and commemorated on a headstone in Falkland Cemetery.

Private Harry Burt, 4th Bn., Gordon Highlanders

Private Thomas [Wilson] Collier, 13th & 1st Bn., Royal Scots. Military Medal. Also listed on the Freuchie War Memorial. The family lived at Drums Farm, Freuchie

Private Andrew Dall, 1st Bn., Black Watch. He lived with his aunt in Newton of Falkland

Private James Dalrymple, 9th Bn., Black Watch. His widow lived in Newton of Falkland

Captain James Donaldson, 7th attached to 9th Bn., Black Watch. Also on the United Free Church memorial plaque now in the Church of Scotland, Falkland.

Private Ebenezer [Eben] Downie, 28th Bn., 19th Reinforcement, Australian Infantry Force

Corporal Thomas [Martin] Dryburgh, Army Service Corps and 8th Bn., Royal Fusiliers, City of London Regiment. Commemorated on a headstone in Falkland Cemetery

Private Thomas Flowers, 8th Bn., Queen's Own, Royal West Kent Regiment

Private Archibald Pringle Forrester, 7th Bn., Gordon Highlanders. His family lived in Newton of Falkland. Also on the United Free Church memorial plaque now in the Church of Scotland, Falkland.

Private [Gunner] George Gunn, 224th Siege Battery, Royal Garrison Artillery. His wife was from Dunshelt

Private David Hall, possibly Private David (Rae) Hall, 1st Bn., Black Watch

Private Alexander Hamilton, 1st Bn., Canterbury Regiment, New Zealand Expeditionary Force

Private Samuel [Patrick] Hastie, 9th Bn., Black Watch. Commemorated on a headstone in Falkland Cemetery

Corporal Francis [Frank] Henderson, 2nd/14th Bn., City of London Regiment, The London Scottish. Commemorated on a headstone in Falkland Cemetery

Private Arthur Hendry, 5th Bn, Gordon Highlanders. His brother Private George Nicol Hendry, 2nd Bn., Scots Guards is listed on the World War Two casualties on the Freuchie War Memorial. Both commemorated on a headstone in Falkland Cemetery. The family lived in Freuchie and at Lathrisk, Newton of Falkland

Private Bert Hughes, believed to be Private Herbert George Hughes, 2nd Bn., Black Watch

Private John Jackson [John Stewart Walker Jackson], 51st Bn., Gordon Highlanders. His Commonwealth War Graves Commission headstone is in Falkland Cemetery and he is also commemorated on a headstone in Falkland Cemetery.

Private Leonard [Leo] Kelly, 1st Bn., Highland Light Infantry

Bombardier John Leitch, D/60th, Royal Field Artillery attached to the Canadian Artillery.

Private John Livingston [Livingstone], 2nd Bn., Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders. Also listed on Freuchie War Memorial and commemorated on a headstone in Falkland Cemetery. The family lived in Newton of Falkland.

Private Joseph [Joe] Lunt, 12th Bn., Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders

Ordinary Seaman John McLaren, Royal Navy, HMS Black Prince

Lance Corporal Harry [Duncan] Michie, 14th Bn., London Regiment, The London Scottish. Commemorated on a headstone in Falkland Cemetery. His family lived in Newton of Falkland

Private Thomas Morton, 8th/10th Bn., Gordon Highlanders. Also listed on the Freuchie War Memorial. His family lived at Drums Farm, Freuchie
Sergeant David Paterson, 175th Brigade, Royal Field Artillery

Lieutenant D A [David Alexander] Richardson, 7th Bn., Black Watch

Private Henry Robertson, 2nd Bn., Royal Scots

Major R C [ Roger Cecil, Rory] Slacke, The Buffs (East Kent Regiment), attached to 2nd Bn., The Queen's (Royal West Surrey Regiment)

Private William [Willie] Smith, Army Service Corps, attached to 1st Bn., Sherwood Foresters

Lieutenant Colonel Ninian C [Crichton] Stuart, 6th Bn., Welch Regiment. Commemorated in the Memorial Chapel on Falkland Estate

Gunner Thomas [Livingston] Wallace, Royal Garrison Artillery, 289th Siege Battery

1914-1919 Roll of honour formerly in the Falkland Institute, additional 3 names

All 34 servicemen who are listed on the Falkland church memorial plus

Private R Gordon (believed to be Robert), Royal Army Service Corps attached to 77th Infantry Base Depot

Private [Gunner] James Wallace, Royal Garrison Artillery, 7th Reserve Bde, Heavy Artillery

Possibly Private Robert Wilson, 1st Bn., Cameron Highlanders

1939-1945 Roll of honour from Church of Scotland, Falkland – 16 casualties

Private John [John James Scott] Bett, 1st Bn., Royal Scots. Commemorated on a headstone in Falkland cemetery

Private Daniel [Domenico] Cairn, 1st Bn., Royal Scots

Private Andrew [Llewellyn] Cation, 6th Bn., Black Watch and Tyneside Scottish

Lance Corporal George Cation, 2/6th Bn., Queen's Royal Regiment (West Surrey)

Gunner Charles Clark, Royal Artillery, 127 Field Regiment

Flight Sergeant Mervyn [Wyndham] Cullerne, Royal Air Force, 57 Squadron. Commemorated on a headstone in Falkland Cemetery

Private John Dickson, Royal Armed Corps, The Royal Scots Greys (2nd Dragoons). Commemorated on a headstone in Falkland Cemetery

Fireman Thomas Dickson, Merchant Navy, SS Empire Ruskin (South Shields)

Flight Sergeant Robert [Cooper Mills] Douglas, Royal Air Force, 77 Squadron

Lance Corporal William [McQueen Donaldson] Douglas, Corps of Military Police

Gunner William [McKay] McEwan, Royal Artillery, 127 Field Regiment. Commemorated on a headstone in Falkland Cemetery

Gunner Walter Murdoch, Royal Artillery, 2 Maritime Regiment. Commemorated on a headstone in Falkland Cemetery

Gunner Andrew F [Fernie] Myles, Royal Artillery, 1 Regiment. Commemorated on a headstone in Falkland Cemetery

Major Colin Pattullo, Royal Regiment of Artillery, 78 Field Artillery. Military Cross. From the family of the Pattullos of Lathrisk, Newton of Falkland. Commemorated on a headstone in Falkland Cemetery

Private William Skinner, 2nd Bn., Black Watch and Tyneside Scottish. Commemorated on a headstone in Falkland Cemetery

Sergeant Lionel O [Ostlere] Smith, Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, 45 Squadron. Commemorated on a headstone in Falkland Cemetery